THE TRUE INTERPRETATION OF THE REVELATION OF JOHN AND THE BIBLE

*For the weapons of our army are not carnal, but mighty through God to demolish strongholds
we destroy all arguments and every obstacle raised against the knowledge of God, and we capture every thought in order to obey Christ.*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my gratitude and appreciation to Mr. George Vournas, who made the great effort of reviving the superb work of Ioannis G. Arnellos through the republication of certain works and for the many works of Ioannis G. Arnellos that he made available to us. Further, the many discussions that I had with Mr. Vournas concerning these issues were interesting and very fruitful.

I would also like to thank Mr. John Pogas for the typing of certain chapters of this book and for his assistance in its completion.

I would further like to thank my wife for her constant encouragement and support in the completion of this work. My deepest thanks to my elder daughter, Athena, for the help she gave in typing the primary form of this work.

Finally, I feel indebted to the staff of Advocate House and especially Ms. Patrika Vaughn. Without their great advice and help, assistance and support, the publication of this book would not have been possible.

AUTHOR'S PREFACE

All scripture used throughout this book has been taken from the King James version of the Bible. Any verse found not to have been translated correctly into English from the original Greek version (and there are many) was modified and corrected to conform to the original Greek Bible text as accurately as possible. This was a necessary step despite the fact that on a few occasions there is no correspondence in chapter numbers and verse numbers between the King James Bible text and the original archaic Greek Bible text. Archaic was the true form of the Greek language used at that time, while now in Greece we use the modern Greek language which is a quite simplified form of that archaic Greek language.

This is a crucial issue of high significance, as the important reader of this book will come to realize, since the real interpretation and true meaning of the verses is quite different from the interpretations offered today by various authors who have tried to fulfill this formidable task. In addition, the (sic) notation was adopted in a few cases in order to indicate that the preceding word/phrase was intentionally written in this way to correctly reflect the original archaic Greek Scripture.

INTRODUCTION

You have no doubt heard the biblical quote, “It is harder for a rich man to go to Heaven than for a rope to go through the eye of a needle.” When one goes back to the original text, one finds that the word “camel” is an inaccurate translation: the original word translates to “rope.”

This significantly changes the meaning of that text. A rope, made up of many strands, can be unraveled — as can a rich man’s attachment to his many treasures.

This is not the only misinterpreted word in the Bible. The King James version is rife with them.

But a marvelous thing happened in 1896, when God granted correct interpretations of many such passages.

Through the re-interpretations of Ioannis (John) G. Arnellos, who, in 1896, gave us new insights into the texts of the prophets from both the Old and New Testament, these errors have been corrected.

This book reveals prophecies, correctly interpreted, about a coming Golden New Era for the Earth, one of incredible progress and prosperity, in which global peace and justice will be achieved.

Also revealed are the errors of our current science and the true answers to such questions as:

How did the Universe come to be? Did the famous

Big Bang really happen?

When did the Universe come into being?

What is the structure of the Universe? Is it finite or infinite?

Where did matter come from?

Does life exist elsewhere in the Universe?
What is the nature of Time and Space?
Can there be Hyperspace?
Does the famous Fusion process really exist?
Why Newton's famous Law of Universal Gravitation does not apply throughout the Universe.
Is it really possible for light to sometimes behave as a particle and at other times as a wave?
Do mass-less particles, such as the photon or quantum, really exist?
What is the purpose of the existence of the Universe?

This book that you hold in your hands contains information that is invaluable and unique. It cannot be found anywhere else on the planet not in any library or in any other educational or religious establishment, except on the Internet at www.revelation-decoded.com. There are no newspapers or magazines where you can find this rare information, which some of you may find shocking.

It took many years of great effort to find, gather, and finally put together what you are about to read. You will find truths about the Bible, the Revelation of John, and about the great Philosophical and Scientific issues that have puzzled the giant intellects of humanity throughout human history.

My objective and only concern is to reveal the errors commonly accepted and enormously popular today and to restore the truth. From the perspective of God, as revealed through Ioannis Arnellos, we discover a very good reason why this information has remained unknown until now. Read on and discover the proofs of these new interpretations and learn of the glorious era that we are about to enter.

Ioannis (John) G. Arnellos

Ioannis G. Arnellos is the creator of the Christian Philosophical System of Epignosis, which the Revelation of John refers to as “the rod of iron” (Revelation, chapter 2 verses 26-27 and Chapter 12 verse 5) and which is the Holy Grail of Knowledge. Arnellos possessed the greatest of all human minds, of which the Lord Jesus said. in Matthew, Chapter 17 verses 11-13:

Ioannis G. Arnellos

“Jesus replied to them, Elias comes first and he will restore everything. But I tell you Elias already came and did not epignosized him, but they did to him whatever they wanted. Likewise and the Son of man will suffer by them. Then the disciples understood that he was talking about John the Baptist.”

In Mark, Chapter 9 verses 12-13:

“He replied to them as follows, Elias shall come first and he will restore everything and it is written for the Son of man to suffer much and to become humiliated; but I tell you Elias already came and they did to him whatever they wanted as it is written about him.”

The Elias that was to come after John the Baptist, who had already come and was slain is Ioannis G. Arnellos who restored everything as Jesus replied to his disciples above and about whom you will read much in the coming pages.

Chapter 1

INTERPRETING BIBLICAL PROPHECY

Strive even to death for the truth and the Lord God will fight for you.

Ecclesiasticus (Sirach), Chapter 4 verse 28

In the next two decades, humanity will see things take place that are beyond comprehension.

This is because the Triadic Law, which has been superimposed by God upon the whole Universe, tends to give birth to a new supreme political system which is coming at enormous speed and which will lead to a superb civilization that the world has never dreamed of. Unfortunately, a terrible war will precede this golden era.

Let us begin by examining a few facts:

The true interpretation of the Revelation of John and of other Biblical passages are still unknown to the world at large. Further, many of today's accepted beliefs concerning the great Scientific and Philosophical issues are also incorrect. A vast number of people are still searching for the true answers and explanations. While some credit must be given to those modern prophets who have made profound attempts to understand and popularize the Word of God, their admitted inability to interpret many of the prophecies has led them into error.

These errors include the proclamation of a Rapture event, followed by a seven-year Tribulation; the coming of an Antichrist; the personal return of Christ who, with the Church, will defeat the Antichrist. These are, admittedly, the speculations and convictions of many modern preachers, rather than direct prophecies given by God.

Within the Revelation of John, God Himself has put some extremely important verses which can only be interpreted by him who was destined and prepared by God to do so, at a specific time. God has pronounced who and when, indicating the one and only true interpretation.

Scholars, writers and authors do not know what John means in Revelation, Chapter 10 verse 4, where he was ordered to “seal the voice of the Seven Thunders” and through it, seal the whole of Revelation. Even the official Church does not have the slightest idea of what this verse really means.

In Chapter 11 John intentionally uses verse 11 to seal the Revelation completely. John ridicules and humiliates everyone who tried to interpret it, making all attempts by various interpreters trivial. Through this sealing, the whole of Revelation has remained sealed until the right time comes, as God intended. Yet God also declared that: and the seals of Revelation would be broken.

Proof that it was done in 1896 A.D. will follow.

There is a principle used in Revelation of John and the Bible in general that we must use in order to correctly interpret several passages. This principle was chosen intentionally by God in order to remove all doubt that what is prophesied, no matter how unlikely, will definitely take place.

This principle originates in the Old Testament, in Deuteronomy, Chapter 19, verse 15, and is also stated by Jesus in Matthew, Chapter 18, verse 16 in the New Testament:

...that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

This principle is used by John as follows. Initially John prophesies a future event and then he sees (prophetically) the same event as already executed. Example: In Chapter 10 of the Revelation, verses 5-7, John prophesies a colossal future event, the impact of which will turn humanity upside down:

And the Angel whom I saw standing upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up His right hand to Heaven and swore to Him who lives for ever and ever and who built the heavens and the things that are therein and the earth and the things that are therein. That time has not come yet, but in the days of the voice of the Seventh Angel, when he blows his trumpet, then the mystery of God as He evangelized to His servants the prophets, will be fulfilled.

Then John sees (prophetically) the same event already executed:

And the Seventh Angel blew his trumpet; and there were great voices in Heaven saying, the kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and he shall reign for ever and ever. (Chapter 11, verse 15)

The mystery of God is that the kingdom of the world will soon become the kingdom of Our Lord and of His Christ. After the third part of Armageddon (more on this shortly) Christianity will become the global religion of the whole Earth, with all other pseudo-religions being abolished and with the Jews recognizing the Lord Jesus as their true Messiah and Savior. They will reject their own religion and become Christians.

This is verified by Archangel Gabriel in Luke, Chapter 1 verses 31-33:

...His name shall be Jesus, and Lord God shall give to Him the throne of his father David, and he shall reign over the house of Jacob (the Jewish nation) forever and of his kingdom there shall be no end. He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Most High.

Since this sounds unlikely to happen, especially today when money is worshiped as a god, it is repeated again and hence verified by Apostle Paul in Romans, Chapter 11 verses 25-27:

For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, so that you should not have the slightest logical doubt that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fullness of the gentiles become in. And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written. There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob. For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

The taking away of the sin of Jacob verifies that the Jews are going to accept and embrace the Lord Jesus Christ as their true God and savior; in that they will become Christians. The same thing is repeated by Isaiah in Chapter 27 verse 9: For this the lawlessness of Jacob shall be removed and this is his blessing, when I take away his sin... But before that happens, some unimaginable events will take place, unknown to the famous religious preachers/prophets of our time. These events are unknown to them because they were not given to eat from the hidden manna (Revelation, Chapter 2 verse 17).

The hidden manna is exactly what is revealed in this book, through the unsealing of the Revelation of John and the Bible by Ioannis G. Arnellos (See photo 1) who possessed the world's greatest human mind and who was prepared and appointed by God to carry out this formidable mission.

The interpretations provided in this book of the Bible and Revelation of John in particular, as well as of the essential mysteries of the Universe, I must repeat, are not the author's own convictions, beliefs or speculations. They are purely revelations from God, given to Ioannis G. Arnellos at the time specified in the Revelation of John and by the great prophet Daniel: the year 1896 A.D., which is the year that the Prime of the Church of God (the Church of Jerusalem) returned from the desert (See next chapter).

That this is the only one true interpretation is further reinforced by the easiness and simplicity by which the forthcoming Bible and Revelation verses are interpreted and by the conformity of these interpretations with the historical stratum.

Nobody can interpret the Bible and particularly the Revelation of John through his own initiative and solely based upon his own efforts. As John himself states:

And to the angel of the Church in Philadelphia write: these things says he that is holy, the true, who has the key of David, who opens and no one closes, who closes and no one opens. (Revelation of John, Chapter 3 verse 7)

It is therefore clear that if God Himself does not unseal the Revelation of John and the Bible by giving the key of David to only "him" whom God Himself chooses, then nobody else can carry out such an extraordinary mission through his own powers. Should someone try, he would embarrass himself through the reality of life which will certainly prove him wrong. Only "him" whom God chooses to give the key of David, only "him" whom God appoints to carry out such interpretation can possibly do so, as is plainly stated in Matthew, Chapter 11 verse 27:

...and nobody epignosizes the Son but only the Father, and nobody epignosizes the Father but only the Son and only him that the Son chooses to reveal to.

The verb epignosizes comes from the Greek word "Epignosis" and has enormous impact upon the Revelation of John, the Bible, and the great mystery of the Universal Sphinx, solving all these mysteries. Epignosis means literally, “the exact and complete knowledge and conception of something.” In this case, this something is God Himself, which is truly extraordinary, because if we “conceptually obtain the knowledge of exactly and completely how God exists, what exactly God is and what are the exact laws that God has superimposed upon the Universe,” then we don’t need any other knowledge since we can then easily decode everything else from that.

Biblically and from the perspective of God, epignosis inaugurates a totally new era for humanity, starting from 1896 A.D., the year that the Prime of the Church of God (the Church of Jerusalem) returned from the desert in order to unseal the Bible and the Revelation of John to explain the great mysteries of the Universe and to prepare the way for the kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ. This is exactly why Jesus in both Mark and Matthew states that “Elias shall come first to restore everything”.

Ioannis (John) G. Arnellos, the creator and leader of this incredible venture was prepared and appointed by God for this mission. He created the Christian Philosophical System of Epignosis, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and widely proclaimed it to the world, through the correct interpretation of the prophecies of the Revelation of John and of the Bible, verifying the significance of the year 1896 A.D.

Jesus himself calls the Christian Philosophical system of Epignosis as the “rod of iron”:

And he who shall win and shall keep my works to the end, I will give him power over the nations and he shall shepherd them with a rod of iron like earthen pots are broken into pieces, even as I received by my Father. (Revelation of John, Chapter 2 verses 26 -27)

From this it is obvious that whoever tries to debate, oppose, disagree or even conflict with Arnellos' interpretation will "crash like earthen pots are broken into pieces." As a fourth and final ingredient, in addition to the above principle which must be used to interpret the Bible and Revelation correctly, we must also employ the Principle of Parallelism, which is frequently used to interpret the works of the father of history, Homer, and Plato (perhaps the greatest philosopher of the ancient world) as well as Moses and the New Testament gospels:

Prophet Habakkuk states in Chapter 3 verse 2:

O Lord, I realized your works and was surprised. In between two animals you shall be known, on approaching those years you shall be epignosized, on passing of the time you shall rise...

The great question now is, what are those years that, when approached, the Lord was going to be epignosized, fully and completely understood?

This is exactly where the Principle of Parallelism comes in. Parallel to Habakkuk's verse above, the great prophet Daniel states:

and I heard the man that was dressed in red, who was above the water of the river and he raised his right hand and his left hand to Heaven and swore to Him who lives for ever and ever, that in time, times and half of a time, when the scattering of the hands of the Holy people would be completed, all these things shall be known. (Daniel, Chapter 12 verse 7)

The "years" Habakkuk is talking about are exactly the same period of "time, times and a half of a time" mentioned by Daniel, because only when "the Lord becomes epignosized (fully and completely understood) would it be possible for all these things to be known. And it will be proven that the “years” and the time period “time, times and half of a time” are the same, both equal to 1,260 years.

To Summarize

In the next two decades, humanity will see events take place that are beyond human conception.

Errors in the interpretation of many Biblical passages, once corrected, reveal these coming events:

- a) The Prime of the Christian Church returns from the desert in 1896 A.D.
- b) The Revelation of John, the most powerful book in the Bible, as well as the other Bible prophecies are unsealed
- c) From the perspective of God, the world enters a new era in 1896 A.D., which the Bible terms the period of Epignosis
- d) The Jews will embrace Christianity

Other great things will follow. Read on for more proofs.
